Our primary service area for housing services includes Cambridge, Somerville, Metropolitan Boston, and MetroNorth communities of Malden, Everett, Melrose and surrounding cities and towns in Massachusetts. Wherever you are in Massachusetts call to see how we can help.

Why MFR? Because we get it.

For over 15 years, MFR has been helping to resolve disputes between landlords and tenants, among housing professionals and more. At MFR, we get it! We know landlords. We know tenants. We know the people who work to support them. We understand that housing relationships can sometimes be difficult. We are here to support and educate so that you can maintain and strengthen these relationships.

Who we help - people like you ...

Professionals who work with clients who need help with housing, and need some resources

Tenants trying to make sure their apartment is habitable, safe and quiet

Landlords with problems concerning unpaid rent or starting the eviction process

People who need support to help them keep agreements that will keep them housed

People facing housing conflicts that are difficult to resolve alone
