Help with Coping and Managing Stress

A free, confidential service provided to tenants and residents whose housing is at risk. Our Resident Service Coordinator helps clients to get organized, make a plan, access services and follow through. Our goal is to help you maintain your housing, prevent homelessness and become stable again. When MFR is supporting you it can make a big difference.

Our Services can help you ...

- Get relief and support at a crucial moment when your tenancy or your housing is at risk
- Get professional help thinking through your situation
- Get advice for handling your relationships while in a crisis
- Develop a plan that will work while giving you hope, support, and encouragement
- Access possible funding sources and services that may be available to you
- Save yourself time, money and stress by avoiding court procedures, or getting professional assistance as you go through the court process

When you contact us we will ...

- Listen respectfully to you in order to understand your situation and what kind of help you need.
- Work with you wherever you find yourself, to help you regain control over your life and assist you in stabilizing your housing.
- Maintain a partnership with you as you follow your plan.
- Cooperate with other professionals involved with your housing.

Why MFR? We have been helping people in housing crisis situations for over 15 years and have helped hundreds of people to maintain their housing and get back on their feet.

Our clients say ...

"Mediation for Results truly helped myself and my family when no other service could." JR Cambridge

"They helped me make a workable plan and keep my housing. Most importantly, they helped me follow through. Thank you, MFR." FN Somerville
